(Reflections)

Editor-in-Chief

WE WILL ALWAYS REMEMBER that we were in high school when September 11th happened, when the Harry Potter and Lord of the Ring crazes hit, when the Patriots won Superbowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, when the Red Sox "reversed the curse" and won the 2004 World Series, and when the United States declared war on terrorism. These are all historical events that we will reflect upon in years to come and remember that we were in Littleton High School when they occured. LHS wasn't only a place that gave us academic knowledge . . . it taught us how to work, how to have fun, how to get into trouble, how to learn and how to live. We will never forget our four years of memories here and this book is just a reflection of us . . . the Class of 2005 and our history.

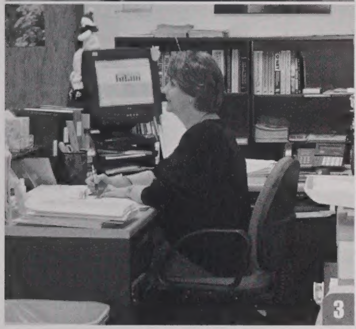
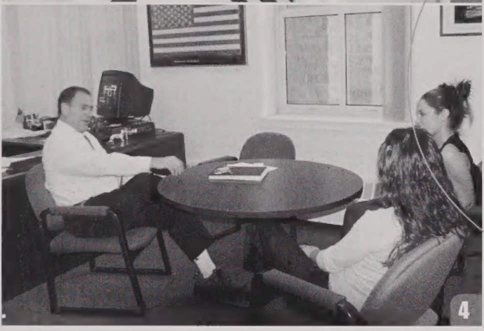
Mr. Desaulniers has made an incredible impact on our school. The seniors are very grateful that he has been our principal for all of our four years at Littleton High School. Mr. D. has a wonderful feeling of how to relate to high school students and has always made us feel comfortable and welcome in our place of learning. We will remember his comical stylings with Fernando on assembly Wednesdays and how he always had a smile on his face as we walked into school each morning. Mr. D. was a great part of our school, and he never failed to be fully interested in what the students were up to. Taking part in student-faculty basketball games and saying hello everytime he passed a student in the hallway are the things we will remember most about Mr. D. He will be missed and fondly remembered by all, and we wish him luck in whatever the future may bring.





1. Mrs. Mulone works behind the scenes to help our school run smoothly throughout each day.

2. Mr. Buckey breathes between teaching Spanish and fulfilling his duties as assistant principal.

Prom 2004

Prom King and Queen with their court all happily pose for a picture to remember this night in style.

Prom 2004, hosted in Nashua's Sheraton Hotel, was a dazzling night of dancing and excitement.

First congregating at LHS, students had their pictures taken on the balcony overlooking the front of the school. Unfortunately, the early April date prevented the tradition of pictures at Fay Park.

Once arriving in Nashua, Miss Price, class advisor to the class of 2005, greeted class members and their guests. In order to best suit the Prom guests' musical tastes, they were each given a slip of paper on which to write their requests.

Of course, Prom needed a king and queen so after some dancing, the Juniors received their numbers, lined up, and paraded in the Grand March, hoping to catch a judge's eye. On this exciting night, Colin Goguen and Michelle Serio reigned. Elisha Adey, Mike MacLearn, Patricia Boeira, and Mike Azzolino were chosen to be in the court.

At the same time, recognition was given to Senior Stephanie Cormier, who had donated over $500 to make this Prom happen. To end this memorable night, one last special slow song was played, "Stairway to Heaven."

Senior Stephanie Cormier was a dedicated contributor to the Prom of 2004!

Home-coming 2004

LHS

Homecoming has always been a big part of the LHS school year, consisting of five parts: the pep rally, football game, dance on Friday, and parade and carnival on Saturday. Though we missed out on the parade and carnival this year, we still made the best of it by appreciating what we had. Before the end of school on Friday, students filed into the gym decorated with posters handmade by the cheerleaders for the football team. The High School Band led the festivities with peppy music as students sat according to their respective grade. After everyone was settled in, the Homecoming "hosts," Jenna Cantino and Alissa Palange, called up the Varsity captains of the field hockey, soccer, and golf teams. Each said a little something about their team's record and upcoming games. The captains of the boys soccer team then returned to the stands while members of the girls varsity soccer and field hockey teams remained below to attempt the much-anticipated Mighty Varsity cheer. Keeping up with tradition, girls on the soccer and field hockey teams had exchanged uniforms during the day. Football captains then came up to thank their fans and add a special cheer of their own: FIRE IT UP! Finally, the real cheerleaders showed us all how it was done in a dance routine. The pep rally ended with the Victory Cheer in which the cheerleaders led their grade, the loudest grade taking the win. This year, the Juniors were victorious! Everyone was then dismissed in good spirits, though many would later come back to the school for the dance being hosted after the football game. Overall, Homecoming was another success!

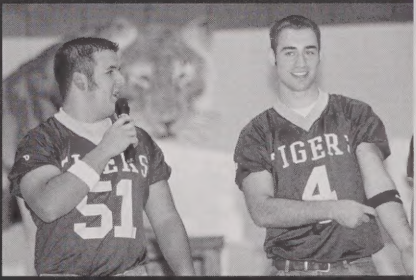
Cheering Host

Traditionally, the LHS cheerleaders have always led the school in the pep rally. This year proved no different with hosts Jenna Cantino and Alissa Palange. Guest speakers included AD Dave Lezenski, Coach Mike Lynn, and of course, the Varsity sports captains. Everyone in the stands showed their support for their fellow classmates and added to the energy of the Homecoming atmosphere.



Remember this?

The History

Cotillion was a tradition begun at LHS 20 years ago. Intended to be a semi-formal for the seniors, this event was to follow the Junior Prom. Now, however, the underclass students make it a point to attend the cotillion also, as Prom is thrown by the Juniors for the upperclassmen only.

Cotillion Memories

- Mr. O'Connell made his guest appearance on the dance floor when "Naughty Girl" came on.
- All attendees took part in the line dance "Cotton-Eyed Joe."
- Due to an indoor soccer tournament, many of the boys had to leave the fun-filled night early.
- The Tigers Varsity hockey team came out victorious in their game against Marian on the evening of Cotillion as well.

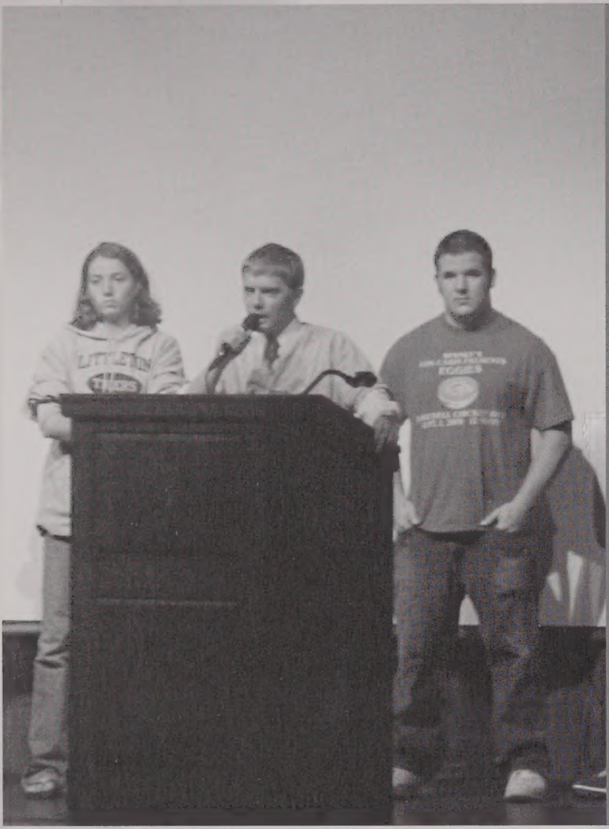
Getting out and having fun is what this year's Cotillion was all about. Students of all ages enjoy each other's company in this winter wonderland.

Winter Cotillion 2004

Saturday, December 18th, 2004 was an exciting night of dancing at the Winter Cotillion. As the primary semi-formal of the year, with the exception of prom, this dance is always looked forward to and attended by many. Cotillion also serves as a fundraiser for the Senior Class. Senior Class officers Emily Coole, Andrea Knowles, and Amber Chambers, along with Class Adviser Ms. Margo Price collected money and welcomed students. From Baby Got Back and You Shook Me All Night Long to Stacy's Mom, the music suited tastes of all sorts. Due to the date of the dance, schedules conflicted, and many student athletes arrived late to the event. Nevertheless, Cotillion started and ended with as much energy as any dance could have. Every year, the Seniors work hard to transform the LHS cafeteria into a winter wonderland, decorated with Christmas lights, snowflake and crystal stickers for the windows, tinsel, and even a tree by the entrance. Students take advantage of this opportunity to dress up, with the girls dressed in beautiful formal dresses and boys in their evening best. With guests from surrounding schools, Cotillion also serves as a chance for students to keep in touch. Chaperones included Mr. Erik Arnold, Mr. Brendan O'Connell, Ms. Margo Price, and Ms. Lisa Richard, and several even made special appearances on the dance floor in response to the encouragement from the students.

"It's so nice to see our students dressed in their holiday attire."



Seniors Emily Zimmerman and Mike Azzolino look on as Mr. O'Connell (more commonly known as OC) addresses the student body.

Half-Day Assemblies

On a typical Wednesday morning, LHS students eagerly anticipate not only the early release of school, but the traditional all-school assemblies as well. The spacious Vincent J. Franco Performing Arts Center comfortably seats all of the students and faculty. Seniors Emily Zimmerman, Mike Azzolino, and Pat Lento serve as hosts of these monthly meetings. Things get underway with the presentation of both Student of the Month and Tiger Pride Awards recognizing academic achievement and kind behavior, respectively. Next up, clubs, sports teams, or other school organizations come up on stage to make announcements. On some days,short film previews and videos from students in the media classes are presented. During the fall season, with the excitement of the Red Sox World Series win, Mr. Desaulniers and our favorite custodian, Fernando Fernandez, kept us entertained with the longstanding Red Sox vs. Yankees rivalry skits. Students watched in delight as longtime Yankees fan Fernando donned Red Sox apparel after the series win. Overall, whether onstage or in the audience, LHS's half-day assemblies never fail to amuse.

All the respective grades tend to sit together at these assemblies.

Next up . . .

All eyes are on Josh Leger as he keeps the attention of the students. Often, students enjoy their peers speaking on behalf of sports teams, clubs, and other activities. Musical entertainment from our own students or outside groups is always appreciated. Most would agree that these informal, yet amusing meetings maintain the close-knit community that defines LHS.

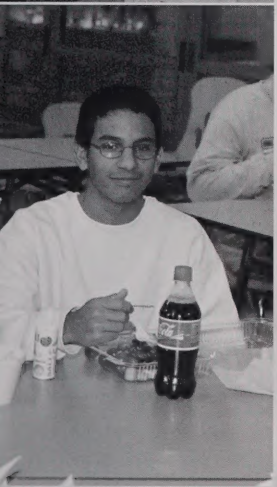
Paying up

Ever since LHS got its own personal chef, the lunch experience has only gotten better. There's food ranging from grilled cheese to grilled salmon, in addition to an everyday selection of salad, pretzels, chicken sandwiches, and personalized subs. And if lunch food isn't what you're craving to have that day, you could always buy a snack or drink from one of our many vending machines.

> "Ask not what you can do for your country– ask what's for lunch."

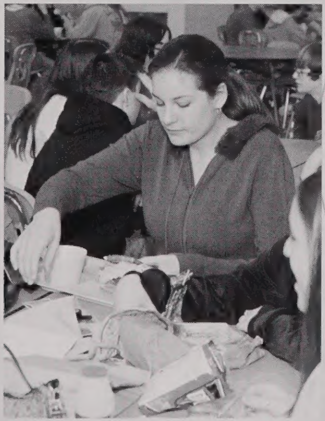
What We Do

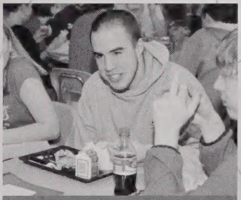
- Some people use this time to do some last-minute cramming or homework assignments.
- Sometimes students just space out and let their minds cool down.
- Many LHS peers prefer to take a break from their studies and eat their lunches.
- Students often socialize and joke around, using this time as an opportunity to be around people they may not see in their classes.



It's time for the hard-working LHS students to take a break from their hectic school schedules and chow down.

Lunch Time Fun





Everyone enjoys laughing and socializing during lunch.

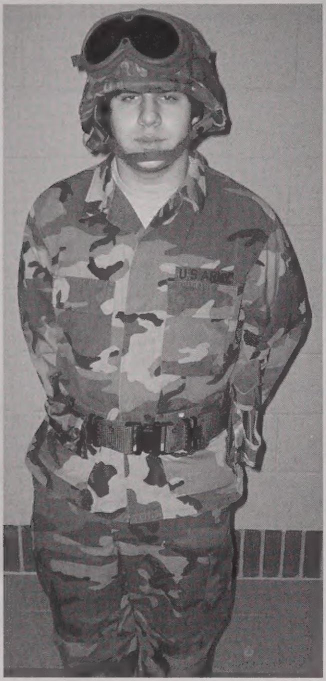
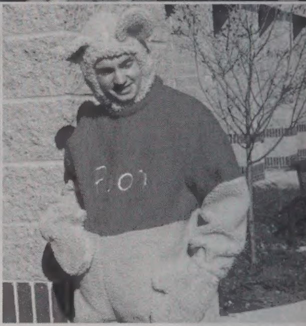
Senior Costume Day

OCTOBER 29, 2004

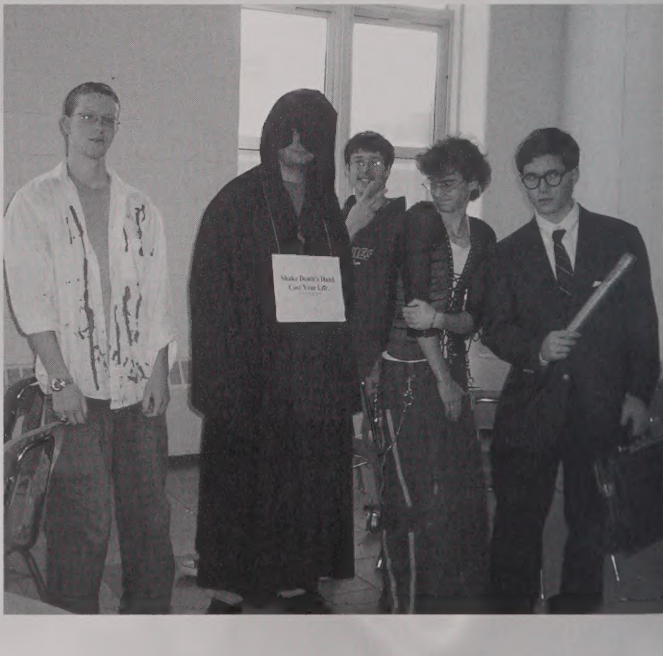
Jacob Carl reporting for duty, sir! Jacob shows off his very original army costume. Costumes such as this are what make Senior Costume Day such a fun and exciting day.



Senior Costume Day is the school day prior to Halloween. On this day, the seniors dress up and throw candy to the underclassmen during a parade around the school. All agree that this year's costumes were especially original. While some students dressed up as pirates, other students portrayed the characters from Clue. Senior Costume Day is a much loved tradition at Littleton, and it considered by many as a rite of passage that one undertakes before graduating from Littleton High School.



Underclassmen wait anxiously for the senior parade to make its way down to their end of the school. Popular candy that the seniors threw were Smarties, Milky Ways, Laffy Taffy, and Snickers.



Is that Jack the Ripper calling or is it just Dan Edgerton? Whoever it is sure has a great costume.

The Class of 2005 takes a moment for the annual class picture. Senior Costume Day has been a tradition at Littleton for many years, and will continue for many years to come.

Dan LeClair takes a moment to show off his Pillsbury Dough Boy costume. As you can see, Dan sported one of the most creative costumes of the day.

Who dunnit? It's no mystery. From Colonel Mustard to Mrs. Plum, these nine witty seniors coordinated their costumes to replicate the cast from Clue.

Mike Knox is successful in his portrayal of Conan the Barbarian. Many seniors chose to wear their costumes all throughout the day.

Colette Chandonait and Colin Goguen anticipate the start of the parade. Seniors especially look forward to tossing delicious treats at the crowd of onlooking underclassmen.

Class Will

I, Mike Azzolino, leave one more long, but great summer to Krit and Ali. Wheaton "Ablaquels" and poker chips Abbie "Warm October Nights" and all the happiness in the world, and Andy a bunch of banana flavored runts. . . I, Stephanie Cormier, leave the butterfly to Ally, Rem, Rara, and Con-man, and my little baby Boy Danni many more years at Littleton with great memories and lots of fun. . . I, Erica Van Manen, leave Nastia and Danni one more year, Paul line games, and the population of Littleton High School a little bit shorter. . . I, Tobias Friday, leave Tim Potter, Sam Rice and Greg Scantlebury "Birdland" and the other "Jam Songs". . . I, Julia McGrath, leave Lynne all the acorns, Rob Thursdays, Joey the house and car, Lizzy lots of hugs, Daryl all the pink shirts and Cassie any preppy clothes I own. . . I, Matt Gates, leave Kayla Dutcher my undying love and 3 more years, Britney 3 more years and eternal boredom, and my brothers Ben and Jon my legacy. .. I, Colin Goguen, leave Spencer a broom, Jon 3 more years, Jaclyn all the love I don't have, and a dry, boring, insensate future for all of Littleton. . . I, Rebecca O'Donnell, leave Kendra 2 more years, Joey 3 more years and A-mod studies, and the best of luck to the Class of 2005. . . I, Josh Leger, leave Alex Wheaton a "Beast Mash", Beth a chocolate milk, the football team good luck and "Stairway to Heaven", and J-Mo and Critter good luck. . . I, Britney Steele, leave Samantha and Amelia the musicals, Amanda Chorus class, and Ms. Masse's classes, lots and lots of weird foreign songs. . . I, Kirsten Cox, leave Nastia my English tests and a stress ball, Cassie S. some duct tape for French class, Amanda S. my ticket my locabazooka, and Samantha 2 more years of mom's insanity. . . I, Dan LeClair, leave fun study halls to Wheats, Abbie, and Caitlin, Butterfingers to Robbie, loneliness to Gabriella, love to B. Roth, and 3 long years to Devon Crory. . . I, Jenna Cantino, leave the Juniors "1 more year", Tommy Noah's Ark and a belt buckle, Lizzy "Arnold", Ms. Coburn "monkie", Alissa and Erin the drama of cheerleading, "the group" my everything, and the halls of Littleton High without my laugh. . . I, Alexander Belanger, leave the good times we had. . . I, Danielle Shnaper, leave the juniors street tennis in the basketball courts, Tommy a cowboy burger and the play kids to gossip about Jordan Marsh. . . I, Damian Perry, leave Cassandra and Elizabeth S. my favorite sweatshirt, Sketch and Shimmel one more year, and Fernando my Red Sox hat. . . I, Mike Morin, leave my brother 2 more years of being called Mike and the yearbook to Erin and Lizzy. . . I, Christine Moriarty, leave Anne drivers-ed and 2 more years of cheers and bus rides, Karyn boring car rides, and a good senior year, and Carolyn luck and all my love. . . I, Justin "Augie" Auger, leave The Queen one more year. Peace out. . . I, Colleen Cannistraro, leave Scott 3 more years of being the only Cannistraro in high school, Kasey Roger K. in the lobby and a great senior year and Katie A. and Abbie many laughs at soccer practices. . . I, JJ Donnelly, leave Dickie, HP and all my folks 1 more year, my Jebby everything, and Bob peace. . . I, Rachel Kingsley, leave Sam 3 more years, Lizzy number one singles, the best of luck to the Varsity tennis team, the legacy of the Littleton Jr. Sr. High School and the good times. . . I, Amanda Warren, leave Jonnypoo 3 more years, Danny his own seat at lunch and Manda many more art classes. . . I, Jen Morse, leave Erica the pre-game goalposts tap, Ashley to lead the offense cheer, Katie dominating center-mid, David 2 more years, and the best of luck to the girls varsity soccer team. . . I, Emily Coole, leave Pookie her own rides to find, Richter tater fights, Theresa to dance alone, and the best of luck to the field hockey and basketball teams (Cait and Dutch this means you!)... I, Pat Lento, leave my sister, Mary, happy trails in High School, Alex Wheaton my demon-slaying scuba suit, Jason Lyon the gift of R. Kelly and Andy Donnelly the Banana Boat.... I, Michelle Serio, leave the field hockey the best of luck in the world, Caitie Scully an awesome senior year, Jackie Russo 2 more years, and a vacancy at the senior girls table by the window... I, Matt Malloy, leave Dickie, Mitch, HP and all the other kids from the barn all the memories of the good times we had... I, Matt Moniz, leave The Queen 1 more year and the football team the satisfaction of being led by Izzo... I, Matt O'Donnell, leave The Queen 1 more year, and good luck to next years football team... I, Jess Gibbons, leave 2 more years to Timmy, 4 more years to Annie, and 5 more years to Ed... I, Rob Crory, leave Jason Lyon the power to Rock, Alex Wheaton my subterranean saxophone and Andy a pile of bananas.... I, Jim Colombo, leave Kasey one more year to enjoy high school, Alex Wheaton the basketball team, Scott the track team for the next 3 years, and Dan and Trums (total 90 legacy) the soccer team to keep the streak alive... I, Brandie Heighes, leave Sam 2 more years of High School and Kristin and Brittany the bumblebee song... I, Kristin Olofson, leave Dargin my escort, Chris a nickname, and Dan "That's cute"... I, Elisha Adey, leave Orion 3 more years, Karyn the first 9 months, and Chrissy fun times in Apartment 319... I, Catrina Cavanaugh, leave my sister 2 more years... I, Cy Chan, leave Nastia, Tom, and Karen 1 more year and the new SATs... I, Mark Fidler, leave bananas to Andy, Drew band, and Katie nothing but SMILES... I, Heather Trumbull, leave Greg 2 more years and the dishes, the Sage-inator the Hanko-Prussian War, Tanya and Dan honorary sibling status, and the Kinch's the bank... I, Tina Chen, leave my sister Whitney 4 more years and Karen the legend of the horse that became a dog and then morphed into a wolf... I, Kristen Rooney, leave Mark the Intrepid if he wants it and 2 more years, Katie A. a lack of co-workers at the farm, and nine less customers at Yangtze... I, Colette Chandonait, leave Erica the defense cheer, Kim "shotgun", and good luck to the girl's varsity soccer team... I, Sam Bulger, leave the soccer team fun times, a bunch more Bulgers in Littleton, and Emily two more years... Sophomore Dan Kroening prepares for a pitch. Dan played a variety of positions for the Tigers, and he was a strong asset to the 2004 team.

Greg Trumbull takes a lead in the hopes of stealing third. Greg has a big bat for the Tigers, and he proves to be an excellent third baseman.

Freshman Joe Berte takes a big swing, never taking his eyes off the ball. This was Berte's first year on Varsity, and he proved to be quite a successful rookie.

Junior Karen LeSage prepares for a pitch. As the staring catcher, Karen played a critical role in the Tigers' defense.

Outfielder Susie Kempton snags the ball in centerfield to make an out during a Tiger game. Susie has been a member of the Varsity Squad since freshmen year.

Emily Abruzzese, a sophomore pitcher and third basemen, warms up before a game. Emily's contrabutions to the team helped them achieve many victories this season.

Sophomore Alex Essman lays down a sacrifice bunt to bring home a run in the Tigers' game versus Clinton. Alex was a strong fielder for the Varsity Tigers' infield and outfield.

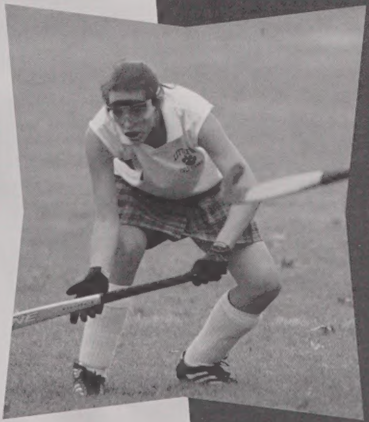
The Tigers 2004 Field Hockey teams gathers in the net for a pep talk before a critical game.

Senior Captain Emily Coole dribbles the ball down the field. Emily's skills were an important addition to the team.

Junior Caitlin Scully prepares to drive the ball across the field for a pass. Caitie's aggressive play and her positive attitude greatly affected the team's spirit.



Sophomore Jackie Russo sets up to receive the ball. Jackie is a strong midfielder for the Tigers.

Junior Tom Page chips the ball onto the green. As one of the oldest and most skilled members of the team, Tom served as captain.

Dan Kroening, a sophomore, marks the ball on the course. Over the season, Dan had the best overall average on the team.

Freshman Jimmy Giugno practices his swing. As one of the younger players, he immediately contributed to the team and will be an important member in years to come.

Andrew Derrig follows through the ball during a match. As a sophomore, Andrew has been playing on the golf team for four years.

ing the ball far from our net and close to t opponent's.

With the ball at his feet, Ciaran O'Dwyer looks to find the perfect pass. As one of seven seniors, Ciaran's leadership and experience brought victory throughout the season.

With much power, Junior Mike Dargin demonstrates perfect form as he punts the ball downfield. As goalie, Mike led the team to success with a nearly-perfect average.

Sophomore Greg Trumbull boots the ball out of the Tigers' end. A talented defender and an asset to the team, great things are expected from Greg in the future.

With a look of determination upon his face, sophomore Dan Richter takes the perfect corner, and he ball floats to the net. Dan adds to the team not only his quickness and skills, but his great knowledge of the game.

Senior captain Colette Chandonait beats her opponent to the ball for a great defensive play. Colette has been playing varsity soccer since her sophomore year . She was a star defenseman for the Tigers this season.

Sophomore Lindsey deMont boots the ball for a shot on net. Lindsey was the league's top scorer for this 2004 soccer season.

Senior captain Andrea Knowles dives to save this shot taken on net. Andrea had an awesome year; she was the league's leading goalie this season.

Kim Martel, a sophomore mid-fielder for the Tigers' varsity team sets up for a pass. A huge asset to the team, her aggressive style of play helped bring the Tigers to victory.

Coach DeCamillis assists senior captain Matt Moniz. Sadly, Matt's year was cut short when his wrist was broken during the West Boylston game.

CHEERLEADING

One time at cheer camp... the girls showed their spirit by overdoing Theme Day with their 80's style. Boston University was taken by surprise when the girls walked in blasting 80's hits.

The Junior Mints: Erin Austin, Hillary Smith, Alissa Palange and Samone Tuttle take a break from their 10 hour cheer day. Don't let their smiles fool you, it's not just fun and games, there's a lot of work to be done.

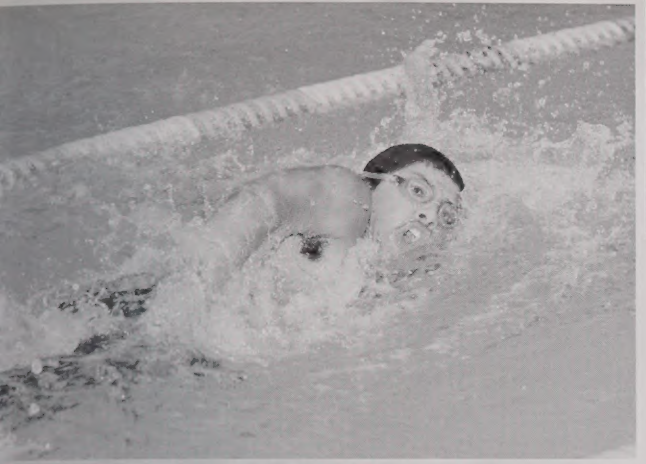
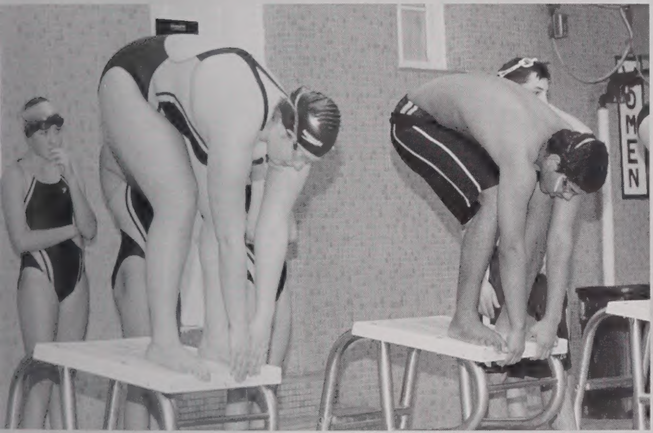
SWIMMING



Brunno Vieira competes for first in the 50-yard freestyle, his best event. His speed and strength helped him nearly qualify for sectionals; "What up now?"



Lisa Knowles and Brunno Vieira are poised to start another race. Although Brunno has swum with the Bromfield Swimming Team in previous years, it was Lisa's first year. Both competitors practiced at the Akinson Pool in Sudbury, along with their other teammates, in order to prepare for these races.

Katie MacDowell checks her time after a particularly close lap. Katie is a co-captain of the team and has qualified for the sectionals in the backstroke.

Freshman Erin Freeman takes her mark, ready to start the relay. Although it was her first year, we can expect great things from her in seasons to come.

Sophomore Carolyn Moriarty takes a breath in the 50-yard freestyle. Her optimistic attitude about swimming boosted the morale of the whole team.

Carly White keeps track of laps for the 500-yard freestyle. Carly swam the 200 I.M., 500-yard freestyle, and 100-yard backstroke. Her versatility made her an asset to the team.

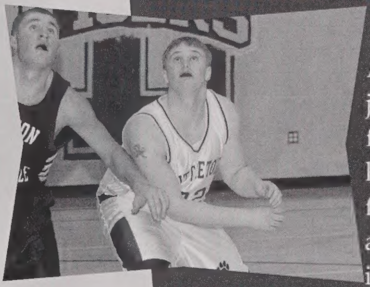
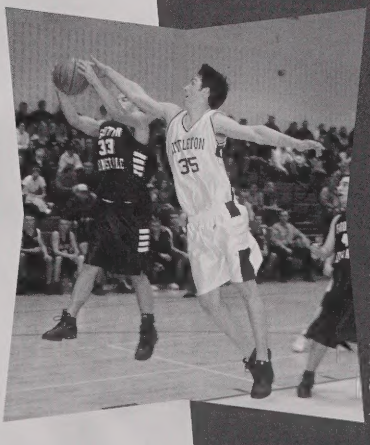
Alex Wheaton, a junior, contemplates his next move on the court. Alex's confidence and experience at the varsity level makes him a leader on the team.

Pressured by an opponent, the talented Dan Kroening looks to take a shot. This season as a sophomore, Dan confirmed his position as a key player on the team.



Absorbed in the game, junior Chris McCrady focuses on the ball. Chris has proved himself to be a fearless player, with both aggressiveness and intensity.



Captain Alex Graves stretches himself to the limit to steal the ball. Year after year, Alex shocks the stands with his skill and ability to put points on the board. Unfortunately, an injury postponed Alex's career and greatly hurt the team this season.

The team huddles on the court for a pep talk before a crucial game.

Senior Jessica Malcolm takes her time as she lines up her shot.

Keeping her eye on the hoop, junior Theresa Nader prepares for the basket. Theresa has proven to be an important part of the forward line this past season.

Showing her skill in handling the ball, senior Emily Coole heads for the hoop all the while aware of where her opponents are. This has been Emily's third season as a varsity guard.

Bryan Takvorian watches a play develop as he moves into position. A junior defenseman, he was an important part of the team throughout the season.

Tom Taylor skates around the net with his head up, looking for an open pass. Tom, a junior, has skated on Varsity for since he was a freshman.

Dan Schneider, a starting freshman goaltender, prepares to save a fierce shot fired by a Fitchburg opponent. Dan and Bill Rafus, a sophomore, both tend the net for the Tigers.

Organizations of Service

Yearbook and NHS are both services organizations that help students take a step towards college.

Scholarship, leadership, character and service —the foundation of the National Honor Society. Each member of the NHS must maintain a 3.7 GPA and provide service to the community in a variety of ways. For the 2004-2005 year, NHS members participated in activities such as movie nights, food drives, and tutoring throughout the schools.

Once again, Ms. Chaple, Ms. Rich and senior editor Michael Morin led the business and literary yearbook staffs to produce the 2004-2005 yearbook. It takes many hours of hard work, patience and most importantly team work to make this book come together. Seniors took on the task of Section Editors and underclassmen helped to put each page together. Deadlines, hours after school, and hard work all helped to chronicle the year.

The Littleton High School Band works hard all year to perform not only at their Holiday and Spring Concerts, but also at the home football games, Memorial Day Parade, Holiday Bazaar, Tree Lighting Ceremony at Littleton Common, September 11th Remembrance Ceremony in front of the High School, and graduation in June. The Chorus also practices each day for their performances at the Holiday and Spring Concerts, as well as singing Amazing Grace each Memorial Day at the Common. The members of Chorus sing at the September 11th Remembrance Ceremony and Graduation as well. A few students from Band and Chorus participate in Districts, which allows them to perform with kids from many other high schools. The Art Club meets after school to plan different ways to liven the school halls. They are currently working on the gym walls and walls near the elevator in the lower lobby.

As a first year band student, junior Amanda Bossman works hard to become a great trumpet player.

Jackie McCreedy and Anita Parker play together for the first time this year before the Holiday Concert.

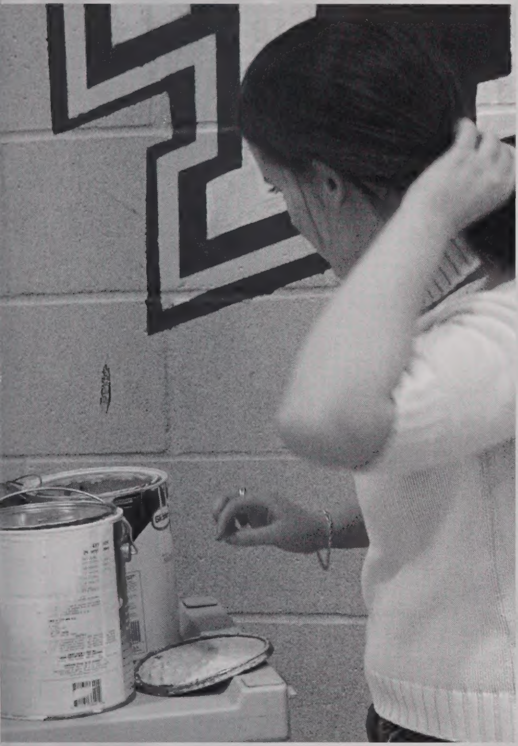
The Art Club works hard to finish the projects they started on the gym walls. The Littleton Tiger emblems are a great addition to the Tiger mascot that the Art Club painted last year.

Dan LeClair, Jack Mulone, Samantha Eckel, and Trish Boeira rehearse for the Winter Concert. At the concert they sang holiday songs like Baby It's Cold Outside and The 12 Days After Christmas.

Nastya Ostapenko and Catrina Cavanaugh dedicate some time after school to paint the gym walls with a Littleton Tigers emblem. When they are not working in the gym, the art club works on painting a mural near the elevator.



Britney Steele warms up her voice before practicing her choral arrangements. Britney also enjoys participating in the school play each year.

Culture Club

Once again this school year, clubs such as Chef's Club and Student Council brought a sense of culture and unity to our school. Under the direction of Mr. O'Connell and Mark Cavallo, the Student Council split into different groups to cover areas such as "Awareness" and "Events." From sponsoring dances, to raising money through different fundraising events, Student Council was very busy this year.

Members of Chef's Club provided members of the school, as well as the community, with some new and interesting foods this year. Themes this year included French Cuisine, Game Night, and Mexican. Fitz guided members through the preparation as well as the cleaning for these dinners. Students show up to the school hours early to prepare for these dinners and stay well after dinner is finished to do dishes and clean the tables in the Cafe.

Danni Stone, Amanda Bossman, Andy Marchese and Mary Francis listen as debate topics are discussed.

Jen Cox prepares hersef for a debate in Mrs. Coburn's room after school.

And may sunshine and happiness surround you when you're far from home
And may you grow to be proud, dignified and true,
And do unto others as you'd have done to you.
Be courageous and be brave,
And in my heart you'll always be Forever Young

And when you finally fly away I'll be hoping that I served you well,
For all the Wisdom of a lifetime no one can ever tell,
But whatever road you choose
I'm right behind you, win or lose
Forever Young, Forever Young

Congratulations Colette! We are very proud of you.
We wish you tons of happiness and success in all that you do.
